SEE BEYOND FESTIVAL

APRIL 29 | 10 A.M. – 3 P.M.

The Maryland School for the Blind
3501 Taylor Ave., Baltimore, MD. 21236

Be a part of a unique experience at the Maryland School for the Blind at the school's See Beyond Festival. Families will get to try everything without sight, participating in blind sports like soccer, beep baseball, lacrosse, goalball and the sprint track. There will also be taste test challenges and sensory crafts. The KidZone will have free balloon animals, face painting and an accessible playground!

Free; donations accepted | marylandschoolfortheblind.org

TOT SHABBAT AT THE INDOOR POOL

APRIL 28 | 4-6 P.M.

Rosenbloom Owings Mills JCC
3506 Gwynnbrook Ave., Owings Mills, MD 21117

With warmer weather on its way, it's time to start thinking about a favorite summer pastime: a day at the pool. Though this event takes place at an indoor pool, it captures much of the same magic. Kids will have a dinner with Shabbat treats, an interactive sing-a-long and free swim time. Kids from birth to age 7 must have a parent with them in the pool, with one parent for every two children.

Tickets: $10 per family (bring your own dinner) or $15 per family (with a pizza from Chef Dan) | jcc.org
